

Cast of 70 Selected for Production of 'Good News'

TOR Productions announced today the cast for the upcoming musical-comedy "Good News" sponsored by the Los Angeles County Department of Park and Recreation, and coordinated by the Torrance Department of Recreation.

The production, to be presented at 2 p.m., July 29 and 8 p.m. July 30 and 31 at Torrance High School Auditorium, 2200 Carson St., will feature a cast of 70 young adults, ages 13-21.

Heading the cast for "Good News" are Shirley Ann Johns, 17, a senior at Torrance High School, and Terry Lee Riley, 18, a sophomore at El Camino College.

ALTHOUGH THIS is Miss Johns first appearance behind the footlights, she has been studying drama, dance and voice for several years. She will appear as "Connie," a demure college student who tutors the football team captain in astronomy.

Riley portrays "Tom," the hero of the gridiron, who will be scoreless, girlwise and gamewise, unless he gets a 76 in astronomy. Riley has appeared in such productions as "Li'l Abner," "Unsinkable Molly Brown," "Music Man," and "Sound of Music." He traveled with the UCLA version of "Alice in Wonderland," which was presented under the auspices of the Los Angeles Junior Programs. He

Youth Band To Perform On Sunday

"Music for a Summer Sunday" will be the theme for this year's program of free entertainment, beginning at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Torrance Park Bandshell.

The Torrance Youth Band will open the season with a concert. A variety show will take the stage Aug. 1.

The "Fun Thru Music" program, elementary school musicians led by Mr. Jim Davidson and sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, will present a concert Aug. 15, and the Palos Verdes Symphonic Band will perform Aug. 22.

Sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, the bandshell programs are designed for the entire family. The bandshell is located at Torrance Park, 2001 Santa Fe Ave.

Four Win Grants to Berkeley

Four area students have received undergraduate scholarships for the 1965-66 academic year at the University of California, Berkeley.

The winners include: William G. Deck, 2704 W. 182nd St., Redondo Beach; Lawrence T. Ball Jr., 3808 W. 187th St.; Sheldon M. Edner, 4602 Cadison St., and Elvin L. Hoel, 1200 E. 222nd St.

plans a career in musical comedy. Attempting to shower Tom with wedding rice, and not stars, is Maureen Ann Rose, who portrays "Pat." Miss Rose is a senior at Torrance High.

Betty Lee Allen, 17, of Hawthorne, and Duane Lyons, 17, of Torrance, sing and dance as "ABabe" and "Bobby" in the production.

Ron Large, music instructor at West High School, will direct the "Good News" orchestra.

Piano accompanists are Tom Somerset and Helen Smoot.

Tickets for the production are priced at $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. They may be purchased at Joslyn Recreation Center, 3335 Torrance Blvd.

INFORMATION on special rates for large groups may be obtained by calling Jim Armstrong at the Torrance Recreation Center, 328-5310, Ext. 269.

"Good News" was written in the 1920's by Laurence Schwab and B. G. Sylva. The music was composed by Ray Henderson.

June Allyson and Peter Lawford starred in a film version of the comedy which features such songs as "The Best Things in Life are Free," "Lucky in Love," "Happy Days," and "Varsity Drag."

Cast members from Torrance include: John Baker, Tom Walls, Don Burton, John Morgan, Pat Shey, Rebecca Goldstein, Debra Terry, Daniel Lefebure, Bill Hassig, and John Rose.

Others in the cast include Robert Mullen, Lomita, and dancer Christine Lugo of Hawthorne.

DANCING IN THE production will be Katherine Huber, Kathy Builta, Connie Dear-den, Joanne Miller, Jeanette Twist, and Deidre Dyer, all of Torrance.

Members of the chorus include: Susan Blanchard, Mary Gordon, Donna and Dianne Kasari, Cathy and Shirley Hanes, Nita Niece, Susan and Linda Henrick, Loretta Brase, Pat Anderson, Pat Holms, all of Torrance, and Joyce Erickson of Hawthorne.

"BEHIND the scenes" will be James Streeter, Gerald Rhoads, John Chiappetta, Richard Devel, Lucille Grooms, and Karen Rivera of Lomita.

Michael O'Bet of Lomita, and Carl Steuer of Gardena are also members of the technical crew.

Coordinating the musical for the Torrance Recreational Department are Jim Armstrong, Kathi Hoffman, and Jim Faulk.
